

LincolnshireMedia

2018

GOLDEN APPLES EDUCATION AWARDS

CELEBRATING EDUCATION AND LEARNING

sponsored by

Lincolnshire
COUNTY COUNCIL
Working for a better future

Primary Young Performer of the Year 2018 WINNER

Amelia Whitfield of Ropsley C of E Primary

Amelia has recently achieved distinction in Grade 7 viola, merit in Grade 7 violin, and performs with 4 ensembles in the Oasby Music Group. Her violin quartet won the Pro Corda National Chamber Music Competition in the U12 age category. Which recently gave a recital in Leiston Abbey, Suffolk. Her ensembles also won two first places at North London Music Festival and the overall award for best ensemble of the festival. She has also played in the Grantham and Colsterworth Music Festivals with all her ensembles winning first place and as a soloist winning and being placed her classes. At school, Amelia is an ambassador for string playing and frequently performs at school to help inspire the younger performers. Amelia has been playing the violin since the age of 4 and was a founder member of the Oasby

Music Group who recently performed their 5th anniversary concert. Amelia is a member of the National Children's Orchestras of Great Britain. She has successfully auditioned for 3 years and is this year a member of the Under 10 orchestra. She attends Easterlies Regional Orchestra rehearsals as well as the residential course in the summer.

Lincolnshire
COUNTY COUNCIL
Working for a better future

SIEMENS

UNIVERSITY OF LINCOLN

Specialist Education
Support Network

North
Kesteven
Academy
Think Excellence

BISHOP
GROSSETESTE
UNIVERSITY

County Cups
PROMOTIONS